

Ramon Ramirez-Velazquez
Junior Associate

T: 202.249.6900
rramirez@torridonlaw.com

Ramon Ramirez-Velazquez brings to Torridon extensive experience in government relations, public policy, and regulatory and legislative affairs. Ramon's career has focused on the intersection of private companies and the government. He has experience advising clients in energy, transportation, and local sectors on how to navigate both the federal government and the government of Puerto Rico.

Ramon most recently served as a Legislative Analyst at the U.S. Department of Energy's Office of Critical Minerals and Energy Innovation (CMEI) where he advised the on legislative strategy and congressional outreach. He also coordinated responses to lawmakers on a wide range of energy issues – including critical minerals, state energy programs, advanced manufacturing, energy efficiency standards, and industrial decarbonization.

Education

- The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, J.D., 2025
- The George Washington University, School of Political Management, M.P.S. in Legislative Affairs, 2020
- The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, B.A. in Political Science, 2018

Bar Admissions

- Indiana